

Evening Sun

The ocean and the evening sun,
says to celebrate the perfect fun.
Wind comes and blows the boat,
ocean waves water in outer coat.

Blue-sky and the evening cloud,
shows to pour the rain with loud.
Rain falls and kisses the water,
blue-sky bothers all these matter.

The ocean and the blue-sky,
tells to love our internal shy.
Leaves gild and touch the feet,
my and her heart intends to meet.
