Everyone an earth likes to run around and plays.

But, although monkeys need to work all day.

Eating Apples and bananas and many other fruits

Driving Cars all day long using many different routes

Signing papers, and books, and also autographs

Lots of super jobs for all the Monkey staffs.

No time for playing, not for hide and seek,

They secure tanks, so it doesn't leak.

Five hours of screen time is their daily time,

On computers, looking for big crimes.

They always have to works, except for the weekends.

Where they can run and play, playing something with a friend.
